

Birmingham PlayCare Network

Consultation Matters

Type of Delivery:	Workshop event
Criteria:	Open to playworkers citywide
Time:	9:30am - 2:30pm
Dates & Venues:	12th July - Stonehouse Gang ASC 13th July - Sheldon Heath 14th July - Handsworth Day Care Centre 15th July - The Big Peg

Aims of the day:

- To use measureable standards to map the current level of children's participation
- To embed participation and consultation in the planning of the participants setting
- To introduce the Hear By Right framework as a tool for participation

Learning Outcomes:

- To support participants to develop an action plan to develop further participation
- Activities promoting visible and valued consultation will be explored and shared
- Access to consultation methods considering
- Inclusion and diversity will be examined
- Benefits of active engagement with children, families and staff will be explored as well as current consultation levels

Programme:

Introductions, expectations, ground rules and health and safety, aims for the day, make a ladder of participation, establishing commitment and priorities, mapping of values and structure of participation including audit of current consultation activities, T smiley/sad face activity, den making activity to identify rights of the provision/protection, importance of honesty, respect and feedback, links to EYFS, Welfare requirements and Play Principles.

For bookings or more information please contact Fatima Bibi on: 0121 236 2917

www.bpcn.org.uk

Caring About Play