

Principles of Play workshop

These principles establish the professional and ethical framework for play work, and describe what is unique about play and play work, and provide the play work perspective for working with children and young people.

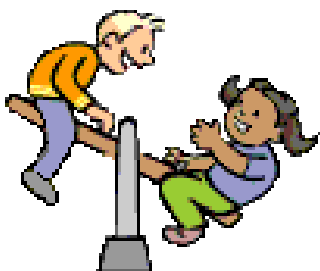

Why play is essential, what it is, benefits to children and communities.

Over view of all eight Principles, and implications for policy and practice

Creating play spaces [including children in process; loose parts; access;

A balanced approach to risk [play behavior/play cycle; Risk-benefit assessment model; reflective practice; interventions

Look at practical ways to develop and make an action plan to inform review of key policies and procedures (Health & Safety, Safeguarding, Behavior, Equality/Inclusion for starters) so that they support good practice and evidence contribution to EYFS & Welfare Requirements.

Dates

6th November 14- North

13th November 14- Central

19th November 14- South

20th November 14- East

Time:

09.30am – 2.30pm

Venues:

Central: Perry Common Library

North: Osborne Children Centre

South: St Mary's Church

East: Christchurch

Please complete the booking form or contact

Pauline Moore on: 0121 236 2917